November 1994
Volume 1, Number 10

Ra's 1994 tour of the Southwest initiated a significant expansion of the Human Design System in America. Many people were introduced to the system for the first time through lectures, readings and basic trainings. The Advanced training in Taos was exciting, dynamic and packed with great people from as far as Maui, Las Vegas, Sedona and Phoenix. In less than one year, the foundation of Human Design analysis in the US has been established. Take a look in the next issue of the Network for names of analysts in your area.

Thanks to the many people who graced the way for this tour to be possible, all who hosted Ra and all those who made it worthwhile by getting excited about Human Design. It is wonderful to share the system and see it change people's lives.

The Planetary Program in November

November continues the process of individuation. Rarely does the planetary program focus so intently on a single theme. This month alone there will be five definitions empowering individuation.

The foundation of this process is the long definition of channel 14-2, the Keeper of Keys, with Pluto in 14, Possession in Great Measure, and the South Node in 2, the Receptive. This empowerment of a new direction is a possibility for all, but how it will express itself individually is dependent on one's design. The definition of this channel alone is a mechanic only. Without a connection to the Throat, the sacral energy will express itself in compulsive activity. And this directional change can be very destabilizing without connection to a center of awareness.

The month begins with Earth in gate 24, Returning, defining with both Neptune and Uranus in 61, Inner Truth, the channel of Awareness, the need to know. This is a potential for individual knowing in the Knowing stream of awareness. Until Nov. 14, Jupiter is in 43, Breakthrough, the ability to conceptualize the knowing as an insight creates the possibility for unique expression. From Nov. 11-17 the Sun/Earth axis defines the channel of Structuring, 43-23, a design of individuality, from genius to freak. With this definition to the Throat center, the new insights will emerge and be expressed.

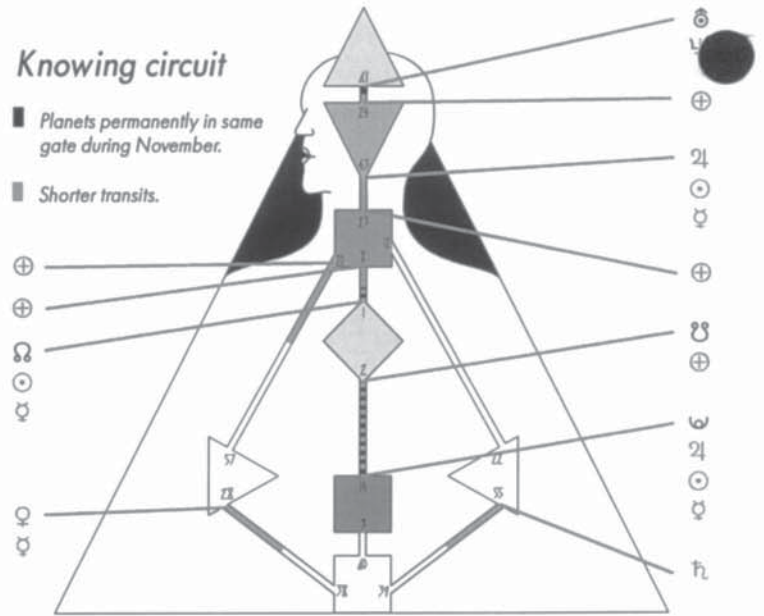

The Sun then joins Pluto in gate 14 until Nov. 22, while Earth activates gate 8, Holding Together, the gate of contribution. With the North Node in gate 1, the Creative, this definition of the channel of the Creative role model links the Keeper of Keys channel directly to the Throat.

From Nov. 22-28 Sun and Earth define channel 34-20, Charisma, giving the Keeper of Keys another outlet to the Throat.

Knowing circuit

■ Planets permanently in same gate during November.

■ Shorter transits.

All this individuating definition will be conditioned by Venus in a long transit through gate 28, Preponderance of the Great, the gate of risk-taking in the channel of Struggle, and Saturn completing its retrograde phase in gate 55, Adundance, the gate of spirit in the channel of Emoting. Both of these channels are essential ingredients in the Knowing circuit. Both are gates of awareness, intuition 28 and emotional spirit 55. With this powerful accent on this circuit, what is missing, the root energy, the fuel for knowing, will be sought out and found. Venus will seek 38, Opposition, the gate of the fighter. This will bring tension to relationships and struggle and stubbornness in the realm of Venus' values. Saturn will react sternly to the provocation of 39, Obstruction. A new direction, but not without difficulties. ■
