1996 Analyst Trainings

The time of year is coming close again, when the annual Human Design School analyst trainings in the fall are held in Taos, New Mexico. It is now the fourth time that New Sun Services America hosts Ra Uru Hu. He comes to offer his great experience in Human Design to teach a new crop of American Human Design analysts.

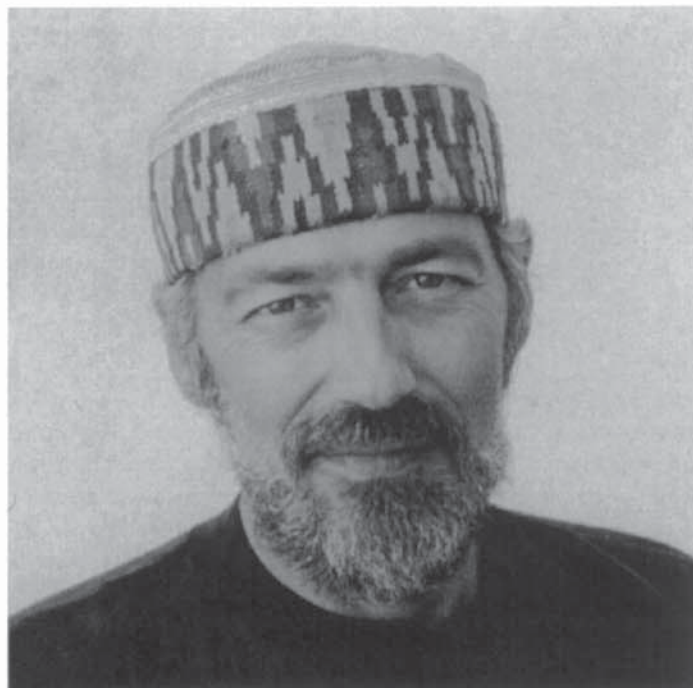

The Advanced training is a six-day intensive that deepens your understanding of Human Design analysis. The morning sessions with Zeno are dedicated to studies and exercises. In the afternoons, Ra will share his wealth of knowledge. An examination on the last day tests the acquired skills. For anyone deeply interested in Human Design, this course is a must. It is also a pre-requisite for those who wish to practice Human Design analysis professionally. To participate in the Advanced training, you must have had the experience of a reading and participated in the Basic training.

Following the Advanced training, Ra will give an additional weekend course on relationship analysis. Attendance requires previous participation in an Advanced training.

Ra will also be available for a limited number of individual sessions. These sessions, whether you've had a reading already or not, hit at the core of your being. It is a lesson in Human Design that will plunge you into new levels of knowing. Call New Sun Services now to reserve.

The work of Human Design is very beautiful. It is a gift to yourself to learn and use it for your own self-knowledge and mastery. Your design holds the key to the mysteries of your life. When you know yourself, the work you do as a Human Taos in early fall is at its most beautiful. It is low-season, accommodation rates are low, there aren't many tourists, making it an excellent time of the year to experience the mystery and magic of this very special place.

Ra Uru Hu

Design analyst in the lives of others can be profound and transforming.

We look forward to having a great class here again. The gathering of people who talk the language of Human Design is always an exciting and awakening experience.

The Planetary PROGRAM

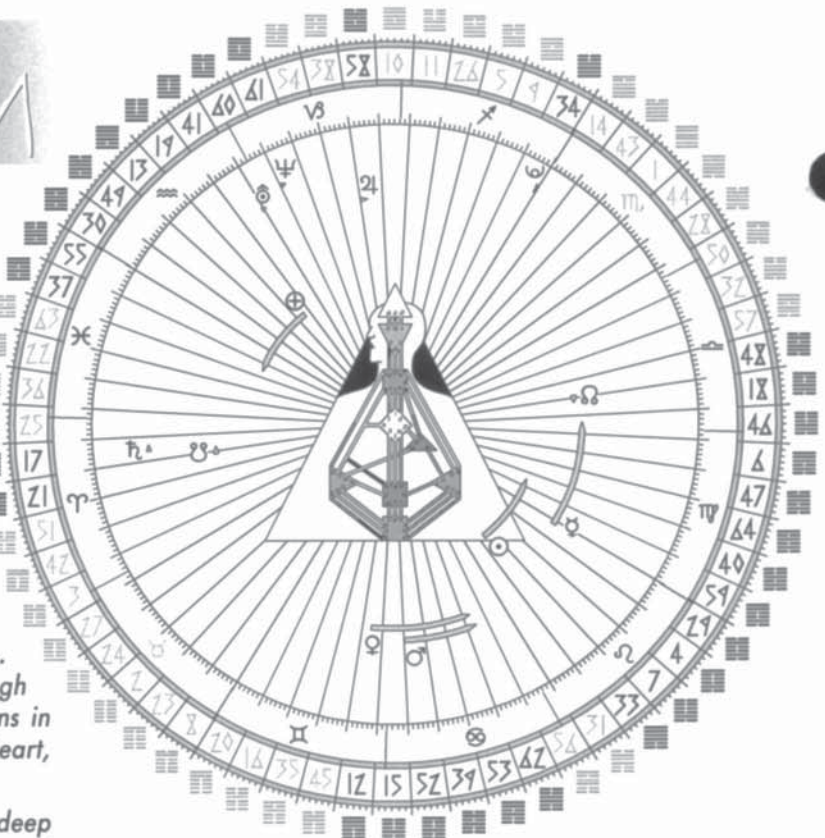

by Chaitanyo

The Sun in August (Leo–Virgo) jumps from center to center in the Body Graph, from the Throat to the G, the Ajna, the Sacral, and then to the Heart. The Earth, opposite the Sun in the zodiac, moves from the Root to the G, and then remains active in the Solar Plexus. During the second week of August is the mid-point of summer, with both Sun and Earth in the G. The end of the month sees the bi-annual event of Sun and Earth defining channel 37–40, Community, a design of being a part seeking a whole.

Mercury and Venus, the inner planets (so called because they orbit the Sun closer than Earth), are as always in the quadrant of the zodiac where the Sun is. Mercury is only slightly ahead of the Sun, cruising through Virgo, which is the most extreme of the astrological signs in having gates all over the Body Graph: in the Sacral, the Heart, the Head, the Ajna, the Solar Plexus, and the G.

Venus is quite far behind the Sun, going from Gemini deep into Cancer during August. Venus happens to move closer and closer to Mars these days and by the end of the month they will conjunct in gate 62, Preponderance of the Great. They face Saturn and the South Node who conjunct in harmonic gate 17, and so define channel 17–62, Acceptance. In the morning of September 4, Venus and Mars are even going to come to a conjunction in astronomical terms, being only 2.883° from each other, after entering gate 56 the day before.

For a glorious night-sky view, get up very early one morning of a clear night in the next few weeks. Venus appears as the brilliant morning "star," the brightest light in the sky after Sun and Moon, and rises as early as two o'clock. Mars is easy to spot as it moves closer to Venus with every night.

Talking about night-sky: the bright planet that dominates the evening sky since months is Jupiter. At this time of the year, it is already high in the southeast by the time it gets dark and sets a couple of hours after midnight, just about when Venus and Mars rise. Jupiter has moved back from gate 38 into gate 58, the Joyous, by the first day of August. On the 9th, the North Node enters harmonic gate 18 and channel 58–18, Judgment, is defined until October when Jupiter leaves gate 58. Read more about this event in Health and Human Design on page 4.

- Thu 1 The Pisces Moon this evening in gate 22 defines channel 12-22, Openness, in the Knowing circuit. Venus is in gate 12, Standstill.
- Fri 2 Aries Moon conjuncts Saturn in gate 17, Following, late Friday night into Saturday.
- Sat 3 Midday Moon conjuncts South Node in gate 21, Biting Through.
- Mon 5 Taurus Moon in gate 24, Returning, in the Ajna center, defines channel 61-24, Awareness, in the Knowing circuit.
- Wed 7 The Moon in Throat gate 16, Enthusiasm, defines channel 48-16, Wavelength, a design of talent, with the North Node in Spleen gate 48, The Well. The Moon fixes six lines in this definition - four lines in gate 48 and two in gate 16.
- Thu 8 In gate 45, Gathering Together, the Moon defines channel 21-45, Money. The South Node is nearing the end of its transit of gate 21, Biting Through.
- Sun 11 With Saturn still retrograde in gate 17, the Cancer Moon in gate 62, Preponderance of the Small, defines channel 17-62, Acceptance, from Ajna to Throat in the Understanding circuit. In the Americas this will be an overnight transit, ending the morning of the 12th.
- Thu 15 In the afternoon the Moon enters gate 64, Before Completion, and defines channel 64-47, Abstraction, with Mercury in gate 47, Oppression.
- Sat 17 Moon conjuncts South Node in gate 18, Work on What Has Been Spoilt. With Jupiter retrograde in gate 58, The Joyous, the Moon serves to amplify the definition of channel 58-18, Judgment, connecting Root and Spleen centers in the Understanding circuit.
- Sun 18 Libra Moon in Spleen gate 57 and Pluto in gate 34 define channel 34-57, Power. The Moon fixes three lines in gate 57, The Gentle, and one line in gate 34, The Power of the Great. Pluto fixes one line in gate 57 and two in 34.
- Fri 23 Late tonight and overnight the Moon goes into gate 10, Treading, on the Sagittarius/Capricorn cusp. It defines channel 34-10, Exploration, with Pluto in gate 34, line 1 bringing out the bully in all of us.
- Sat 24 The Moon conjuncts Jupiter in Root gate 58, The Joyous, in Capricorn.
- Sun 25 The Moon in Capricorn conjuncts Neptune in the Head center. The Moon fixes lines 2 and 3 of gate 61, Inner Truth.
- Mon 26 Moon conjuncts Uranus on the Aquarius side of gate 60, Limitation.
- Wed 28 Full Moon in Pisces, six minutes before entering gate 37, The Family.
- Fri 30 Moon conjuncts Saturn for the second time this month.
- Sat 31 Tonight into tomorrow the Moon transits Aries/Taurus cusp gate 3, Difficulty in the Beginning. With Uranus in gate 60, channel 60-3, Mutation, is briefly defined.

Except Mars, all of the outer planets (the ones farther away from the Sun than Earth), from Jupiter to Pluto, are in retrograde motion (they appear to be moving backward in the zodiac, an effect caused by our geocentric view of the solar system). Saturn in gate 17 in the Ajna is joined by the South Node on August 9. Saturn is also visible in the night-sky. It rises around ten and sets in early morning.

Uranus moves back from gate 41 into gate 60 for its last few months there, providing pressure from the Root.

Neptune is still in gate 61 until December, when it will leave the gate of Inner Truth for good for the next 165 years.

Pluto, in gate 34 since November of last year, provides everybody on the planet with meanwhile noticeable power. It is in line 1, the Bully, since weeks and adds that particular flavor to the available energy. It remains in this line until the last day of September, after having turned direct (moving forward, counter-clockwise, in the zodiac) on August 9.

10. Work on What Has Been Spoilt

With Jupiter retrograding into gate 58, The Joyous, on August 1, and the North Node entering gate 18, Work on What has Been Spoilt, on August 9, channel 18-58, Judgment, will be defined until October 6.

Gate 18 is a potential of instinctive awareness, spontaneous, in the here and now. The task is to become aware of what needs to be corrected to go ahead: Judgment must serve progress. Key for all work on what has been spoiled is the question "What is the purpose?" Purpose points to the future, to what lies ahead of us in the geometry of life, as opposed to the question of "Why?" that always leads to the past. Mostly, patients come with the question "Why do I have this ailment?" Therapeutically however, it is important to open the perspective ahead: "What is the purpose of this ailment?" Therapy needs to serve something that still lies ahead. Like when you swing back your arm to gain momentum to throw a ball far, a therapist sometimes needs to go back to detect the purpose, but it is done only to serve the improvement of what lies in the future.

Channel 58-18 is part of the Understanding circuit, which is collective and serves communication. Like all three Root gates fueling the Spleen, gate 58 is significant for health. It is the joy of life we share with others. It is the premise, the fuel, to improve life for all, to work on what has been spoiled. By critical judgment, this definition will lead to the improvement of old forms of therapy, the implementation of new ones, or the elevation of obscure treatments to serve the collective.

In 1984, the last time Jupiter was in gate 58, AIDS was brought to collective recognition and the search for a therapy started. This time we enter a new phase. At first, Jupiter is retrograde, coming from gate 38 in the individual circuit of Knowing, the base for any real Mutation (60-3). Individually risked (38-28) forms of therapy will now have to be collectively judged (58-18), and then again experienced and confirmed (known) individually, when Jupiter enters gate 38 again in October. Finally, they will bring real Transformation (54-32) with Jupiter transiting gate 54 in November-December.

Channel 58-18 helps to judge whether an individual experience is logical and consistent and therefore can serve the collective progress. We will see if new medicinal and therapeutical findings, tested individually, can withstand the collective judgment and can really be transferred. If we generalize and apply these individual experiences to the tribe without testing and judging their value for the collective, viruses and bacterias will be transformed (54-32), instead of the tribe.

Two months of collective judgment are a short time. To find it for the benefit and well-being of all, the obvious laws of the Understanding circuit apply: no ego and no emotions (the Heart and Solar Plexus centers are not part of it). Of course, most researchers, therapists and medics don't know that, and so we will be confronted with a lot of stirred up emotions and egoism. In the light of Human Design, we know that these kinds of tainted disputes will hinder the progress and future health of the collective more than help it. No choice. ■
