THE HUMAN DESIGN SYSTEM COMES TO AMERICA

This past November and December Ra Uru Hu was in New Mexico to introduce the Human Design System for the first time in the US. He gave free introductory lectures in Taos and Santa Fe, individual readings and courses. There were two Basic Trainings followed by one Advanced Training in Taos, which ended on New Year's Eve with eight newly certified Human Design Analysts.

Ra enjoyed his stay in New Mexico and plans to return mid-September for a six-week tour of the Southwest.

New Sun Services America was created in order to serve the recently-certified analysts and distribute information, books and tapes to anyone interested in finding out who they are through the Human Design System. The monthly newsletter makes its debut appearance with this issue. Beginning next month, a brief description of the planetary program and the themes for the month written by Ra will be included.

This creative endeavor is left in the hands of Chaitanyo and Zeno. Meanwhile a product line has been assembled. As you see in this mailing, an order form is enclosed. Look it over. The list of products gives you a comprehensive overview of the available services and tools.

THE FIRST GENERATION OF ANALYSTS

Eight people attended the Advanced Training with Ra. On the first day, it was noted that the only two gates which were missing from the group composite and the planetary transit were the gates of Doubt and the Fighter. This was taken as an auspicious sign.

The six-day intensive provided the participants all the necessary knowledge and understanding to be qualified to give readings to others. Following the exam on the last day, all eight were certified as Human Design Analysts.

During a reading, the analyst takes you through your own individual design by an overview analysis, and demonstrates how to look further into your own design by reading your lines in the Rave l'Ching. A brief introduction to the Rave Ephemeris and how transits work is included. By using the book, your chart and the ephemeris, you become aware of how you are being affected by other people and the planetary program.
