The movement of Sun and Earth in March-April.

The Body Graph shows the gates opened by Sun and Earth during the same time.

Sun and Earth in Spring

The Sun is the giver of life, without it we wouldn't be. In ancient times, the Sun was a god for humans. In terms of the I'Ching, the Sun is the Yang principle, the light, the creative. In astrology, the Sun sign is the starting point for any interpretation. Biology tells us that without its light and warmth there would be no life. In terms of physics, the Sun is the center of gravity of the solar system and the source of 70% of the neutrino stream reaching us. In terms of Human Design, the Sun is all of the above: the main conditioner of life, where we "shine our light," the source of our vitality and will to live.

The Earth circles around the Sun spinning on its axis in just the right place that makes it suitable for life and consciousness. It is the great mother, giving birth to all life. While astrology

The Planetary Program March–April

New Addition to the Monthly Calendar

It is always worth noting when the planets form definitions, since they influence everyone. The new gray, horizontal bars underlining the number of a gate have been added to the calendar to indicate that the planet forms a definition with another.

Look at the Sun/Earth on March 1. They form 37–40, the channel of Community. March is not very dramatic, and you can see easily that there aren't many collective definitions. April has a lot more, e.g. Earth in 57 has an underline the second week of April, as does Pluto in 34. Together they define the channel of the Archetype for that week.

For the last several months, there have always been channels defined by the planets, meaning that everyone had collective influences. After February's constant definitions from the planets, the month of March is very quiet. There are only a few days out of the whole month where any channels are defined by the planets. How the program affects you in March depends on what potentials in your design get defined by transits.

The Nodes of the Moon changed into gates 28 and 27 late February and remain there until July 14, almost five months. Gate 28, Preponderance of the Great, game-playing and risk-taking, is activated by the North Node, our collective destiny of where we are going, seeking the Fighter, being stubborn and struggling to know. The South Node is in 27, Nourishment, gate of caring, looking for 50, the Cauldron, gate of values.

Pluto in 34 and Earth in 57 define the channel of the Archetype early in April. Pluto then retrogrades out of gate 34 into gate 14 mid-April. Mercury, speeding through gates, makes definitions lasting two and three days each. At the same time, the Sun in 3 and Uranus in 60 define the channel of Mutation for one week. The powerful Uranus energy stored in the Root center releases itself into the Sacral center at the same time that the South Node in the Sacral gate 27 and the Earth in the Splenic gate 50 define the channel of Preservation. The following week, the Sun conjuncts the South Node in 27.

The Sun ends April in gate 24, Returning, gate of rationalizing, in definition with Neptune in 61, making the channel of Awareness, design of a thinker. It is a time when the mystery can be made rational.

The Wheel: The planetary movement March–April. The central Body Graph is March 20, vernal equinox.

during this time. Look for conjunctions or harmonic gates that form definitions with your own potentials.

You can also check for patterns in your life going the other way. In Human Design, it is easy to see when the Sun or Earth make definitions with potentials in your design. Look for significant bridges or potentials in your Rave chart. Then note when the Sun or Earth will transit these gates. Especially if the Sun or Earth "fix" one of your lines is it interesting to observe what is brought out. Find the specifics of what planets fix lines by checking your gates and lines in the Rave I'Ching.
